SPRING?

By Jim Manes.

Spring, spring, beautiful spring.
Who the deuce wrote that?
Here we are in April, folks,
And just where is spring at?
This morning it was thirty-eight,
Frost-bites came in a swarm;
Someone swiped us with the cold,
And someone swiped our warm.

P. S.—We're changed back to 'em and they itch like the deuce!

TODAY'S HEALTHOGRAM

There are several rules which, if followed, will aid a person to keep to the happy road of good health. Learn self-control. Try to strike a happy medium. Not too much, not too little of work, play, sleep or food. Cultivate repose. Look on the bright side of things. See the best in others, not the worst. Don't get angry or irritable unnecessarily. It affects the digestion. It mars the face.
